

Wedding Gown Guidelines

To consign your wedding gown, please call the store (941-655-8172) to make an appointment to bring it in for evaluation. We only take gowns no older than 5 years, are in extremely good condition, have been professionally cleaned with wrinkles steamed out, and are on hangers. Gowns cannot be missing beads, buttons, or other adornments. The consignor and Back on the Rack will agree on the selling price. Price is determined by style, condition, designer, and age. We do take altered gowns but reserve the right to determine if the alterations are too extensive to be accepted.

1. The consignment period for Bridal Gowns is 180 days. We may, with the consent of the consignor extend the consignment period.
2. Once your gown sells, your check will be written on the 1st of the following month and must be picked up at the store after the 5th of the month. A check will only be mailed to you if you provide a self-addressed stamped envelope.
3. You will be given a Consignor # and instructions on how to access your account on line. Consignors are responsible for monitoring their own accounts. Gowns that have not sold during the consignment period may be picked up within 1-7 days after the consignment period ends. If gown is not picked up within the 7-day window it becomes property of the store. Once a gown is accepted for consignment it may not be removed from the store during the 180-day consignment period.
4. We take extreme care with all merchandise, however, occasional mishaps do occur when trying on clothing. Back on the Rack is not responsible for damage caused by customers. In the event of the unlikely event of theft or natural disasters Back on the Rack we will do everything we can to help you recover your item but we cannot compensate the consignor.
5. You will receive 50% of the sales price for your gown less any buyer fees. A small buyers fee may be added to defer the cost of advertising or credit card fees. If we ship your gown to a buyer the buyer will incur the cost of shipping and handling.
